BULGARIAN ARMY CONTINUES TO PLEAD FOR ARMISTICE WHILE BRITISH ARMY CONTINUES TO INVADE COUNTRY

ALLIES ADVANCE EVERYWHERE

By United Press

London, Sept. 28.—The Americans have broken through the defenses beyond the Hindenburg line on a ten mile front between Dannevoix and Belisfontaine, northwest of Verdun, according to battle front dispatches received here today. Between Manilla and Montblancville (a front of over ten miles) the Americans are within a mile of the heads of the enemy's three standard gauge railways.

They have taken scores of miles of light railways. Dannevoix is near the bank of the Meuse, 15 miles north and west of Verdun.

The Belgian and British forces began operations in Flanders this morning.

The Anglo-American drive on Cambrai was officially reported this morning as progressing favorably.

The Franco-American drive in the Champagne-Argonne region is in full swing with the Americans away beyond the Hindenburg line on a 10 mile front.

The Serbians who have taken Veles are continuing their advance to Uskub. They have taken Koshane, 50 miles north of the farthest point on the Serb-Grecian frontier and outflanking the Bulgarians in the Strouma River valley.

Bulgaria is determined to push negotiations for an armistice to a conclusion, despite bitter opposition by the Germans.

Japanese troops have won new successes in Siberia, effecting a junction with General Rulov.

Information regarding a probable Flanders offensive was contained in an official statement by General Haig who declared that the second army commander, General Plumer—rated as the best British field general—had begun operations in conjunction with the Belgian army.

The attack against Cambrai has brought the British to within 3 miles of the city itself.

Staff dispatches declare the British can take the city when they are ready to occupy it. Its occupancy is delayed only because it is heavily mined by the Germans. German prisoners in this fighting are officially announced as more than 10,000, in addition to 200 guns taken.

The Americans operating with the British have taken Le Catelet lying mid-way between Cambrai and St. Quentin. On the American's right the British and French continue to push against St. Quentin. Americans resuming their drive in the Argonne have advanced beyond the Hindenburg defenses, on a ten mile front between Dannevoix and Belisfontaine, and are within a mile of the main German rail heads in this section. The French attacking on the Americans' left have made rapid progress, and are within 5 miles of the important railway junction of Chalange. More than 16,000 prisoners have been taken so far.

LOCAL BOARD NO. 1 BUSY SENDING OUT QUESTIONNAIRES

Local board No. 1 of Clearfield is well along with its work on the listing and classification of the registrants of 1918 between the ages of 19 and 36. All of the questionnaires between these ages were placed in the mail by the 25th of the month. Any person who should have a questionnaire and who has not received it should at once report that fact to the board so as to save himself from being reported to the military authorities as a delinquent.

There are 1750 men out of the total of 4125 registrants to whom questionnaires have been sent. The board on Friday began its work of classifying. In the first lot of questionnaires examined it was found that a number of registrants had failed to indicate on the face of their questionnaires whether or not they claimed a deferred class. The board calls attention to the fact that the regulations provide "A claim for deferred classification shall be made by a registrant by placing a cross mark (X) on the first page of the questionnaire in the space opposite the division that state the ground of claim and by specifically claiming such deferred classification by his answer to the question at the bottom of such first page."

A General Crowder has stated "Boards are not omniscient" and they cannot be presumed to know the intent and purpose in the mind of the registrant. Where no claim is indicated on the face of a questionnaire Local Board No. 1, Clearfield, will classify the registrant in Class 1. There seems to be an idea abroad that the boards will assume this responsibility of determining where a man will be classified without his making a claim. This is an error. Class 1, Division G is provided for "Registrant by or in respect of whom no deferred classification is claimed." Much time, labor and annoyance can be saved to both the registrant and his dependent, as well as to the already overburdened boards by registrants seeing to it that their questionnaires are completed in this respect.

BULGAR DEBACLE CAUSED BY U. S. WAR ACTIVITIES

By Carl D. Groat

Washington, Sept. 28.—American concentration on the western front is directly responsible for the Bulgarian debacle. This interpretation was drawn today from Chief of Staff March's press conference in which he pointed out that the Germans are no longer able to aid their hard pressed allies such as Bulgaria. The general fall of Turkey and the reestablishment of Roumania were foreseen by March as possibilities if a separate peace is made with Bulgaria. The Danube front would be

The German war office in its Friday statement admitted some successes by the British and Americans in Picardy but declared that renewed attacks by the French and Americans between Argonne forest and the Meuse river had failed.

While the Allies are continuing to invade Bulgaria and force the divided Bulgarian army into a trap the Bulgarian army is continuing its frantic efforts to negotiate an armistice—leading to a separate peace.

The Bulgarian parliament is reported to have officially endorsed Premier Malinoff's offer. Foreign Secretary von Hintz addressing the main committee of the German Reichstag intimated that the Germans would not acquiesce to Bulgaria's request to desert the Central Powers.

ALL CLUB BARS TO CLOSE ON SUNDAYS

U. S. Fuel Administration Asks That Clubs Observe Same Hour As Licensed Liquor Dealers

CLUBS WILL OBEY REQUEST

Federal agents representing the U. S. Fuel Administration were in Clearfield today and while here called on the officials of all the sideboard clubs requesting them to put certain rules into effect as an aid to increasing the man-power of the nation and helping to curtail the large amount of loafing that is prevalent on Mondays. They will visit every liquor dispensing club in the Pennsylvania coal field, comprising ten counties.

The requests made are that absolutely no liquor be dispensed in their rooms on Sundays; that no liquor be dispensed on any day after 10 p. m. In other words, the liquor dispensing clubs are to observe, so far as closing hours are concerned, the very same laws and rulings as laid down by the county courts.

The Federal agents report that every sideboard club in Clearfield very cheerfully and willingly signified their intention of obeying the rules and the agents were very much pleased with their reception here.

This action comes about thru statistics compiled by the U. S. Fuel Administration showing that from five to eight per cent. of the short tonnage of this district is due to idleness on Monday from the result of Sunday drinking or idleness on week days due to drinking at a late hour the night before.

Every licensed hotel and liquor dealer in the county is being advised by the agents that they must literally obey the license law with regard to selling a man when he is visibly intoxicated. The agent is very specific in his explanation that a licensed dealer must not sell to a man who shows by any sign that he has been drinking. The Fuel Administration is going to see that prosecutions are brought where any licensed dealer disobeys this part of the liquor law.

reestablished. Where March always referred to the war situation as "continuously good" he described it today as "continuously better," dwelling largely on Bulgaria. Chief of Staff March pointed out that her debacle was important not only from a diplomatic standpoint but it had a great effect on the grand strategy of war and that it had a striking effect on the western front. Previously he pointed out that the Germans have been able to devote some divisions to other than the western front if necessary. That day has passed, he said. The big concentration of the entire American army plus the French and British forces hold the German in the west.

PRESIDENT MAKES GREAT LIBERTY. LOAN SPEECH

WILSON IN EPOCHAL ADDRESS SAID CENTRAL EMPIRES ARE WITHOUT HONOR AND CANNOT BE TRUSTED

NO BARGAIN OR COMPROMISE PEACE

New York, Sept. 28.—President Wilson tonight, before a record audience, made the most comprehensive war speech of his career.

He explained once more the issues of the war and the sacred things for which America and all civilized world are fighting and he pointed out the purposes which will be accomplished in only one way—by the utter defeat of the Central Powers.

The President struck home, for his every word breathed fire and determination and he declared with earnestness that peace could not rest "upon the word of outlaws."

"We cannot come to terms with them," he said, "for they have made it impossible."

At one point there was a trace of anger in his voice when he told why we entered the war. He said:

"It's challenge drove to the heart of everything we cared and lived for. The voice of a war had become clear and galloped our hearts. Our brothers from many lands as well as our own men murdered, dead under the sea, were calling to us and we responded fiercely, and of course."

The President outlined the great role that America must henceforth take in the world's affairs. He re-explained his ideas of a League of Nations, the organization which in the future will both make secure and maintain the peace of the entire world. The United States, he pointed out would be included in this League, and he showed why the world's affairs and peace demand such a body.

The war, the President said, had resolved itself in a war of peoples and not of statesmen. Its issues, he added, are as these:

Shall the military power of any nation or group of nations be suffered to determine the fortunes of people over whom they have no right to rule except the right of force?

Shall strong nations be free to wrong weak nations and make them subservient to their purpose and interest?

Shall peoples be ruled and dominated even in their own internal affairs by arbitrary and irresponsible force or by their own will and choice?

Shall there be a common standard of right and privilege of all people and nations or shall the strong do as they will and the weak suffer without redress?

Shall the assertion of right be haphazard and by casual alliance or shall there be a common concert to oblige the observance of common rights?

Peace cannot come by bargain or compromise—America has Brest-Litovsk and Bucharest as evidence of the impossibility of a compromise peace, the President declared.

Then in amplification of utterances of America's interpretation of peace, he laid five particulars which no doubt will be the guiding principles of the peace table discussion. They are:

1. The impartial justice of peace must involve no discrimination between those to whom we wish to be just and those to whom we do not wish to be just. It must be a justice that plays no favorites and knows no standard but the equal rights of the several peoples concerned.

2. No special or separate interest of any single nation or group of nations can be the basis of any part of the settlement which is not consistent with the common interest of all.

3. There can be no league or alliances or special covenants and understandings with the general and common family of the League of Nations.

4. There can be no special selfish economic combinations within the League and no employment of any form of economic boycott or exclusion, except as the power of economic penalty by exclusion from the market of the world may be vested in the League of Nations itself as a means of discipline and control.

5. All international agreements and treaties of every kind must be made known in their entirety to the rest of the world.

The Enemy Is Watching

By NEWTON D. BAKER, Secretary of War

The supreme moments of our struggle with Germany have now come.

We have carried our first armies across three thousand miles of ocean and joined the issue of battle with the military power of a nation that has been for forty years preparing its plans and its weapons for its present attempt to dominate the world. We have had to put forth an immense effort and spend a fabulous sum in order to make, in so short a time, an adequate beginning for our gigantic task.

But it is only our beginning. We must follow it with greater energy and support it with increasing power. Men, munitions, ships and supplies must go to Europe in a larger and larger stream. We must redouble our blows and add constantly to the strength of those blows, if our initial effort is not to be wasted.

This Means That Our Fourth Liberty Loan Must Be Larger Than Its Predecessors, More Enthusiastically Supported and More Quickly Than Ever Subscribed

The enemy is watching anxiously for the first sign that we are faltering.

Our Government Loans should go "over the top" as eagerly as our soldiers do, in order to carry with them the terror of furious attack. Our dollars must rain upon the enemy as overwhelmingly as our hail of bullets or our storm of shells.

We are fighting for the liberty of the world, for the triumph of our ideals of democracy and self-government over the last great advocate of force upholding injustice. We are buying with our Liberty Loans the security and joy of our people for generations to come. No price could be too high to pay for such a victory—no cost too great for such a purchase.

Realizing there was a possibility of a curtailment of the manufacture of women's coats, as well as a possible curtailment in the use of fur, we placed orders unusually early and so are able to offer to our customers one of the most comprehensive collections of Fall garments this store has ever had the pleasure of showing.

Every desirable wanted style of the season is represented.

"Smart simplicity" but describes the character of the styles and yet the styles are so developed as to provide beautiful, distinctive and individual effects that will appeal to every woman desiring a coat of beauty and practicality.

The coats are made of velours, mixtures, broadcloth, etc., and are trimmed with fur and buttons.

Gossip for Tonight's Tea Table

Mrs. Juliet Broncol and son Lloyd, of Frenchville passed through town today on their way home from Homer City, Indiana county, Pa. where they had been attending the funeral of Mrs. Broncol's brother in law, Louis Porrage, who was recently killed in a fall from a trestle at a mine where he was employed.

Mrs. Sallie Snyder of Riverview, who celebrated her 89th birthday on September 1st last, was a busy business visitor to town this morning. Mrs. Snyder is one of the most remarkable old ladies in this section and gets about with the vigor of a person twenty years her junior.

Mrs. Griffith of the Park House, Curwensville received a telegram from the war department to the effect that her husband Walter Griffith had been severely wounded in action in France. Private Griffith is a member of Co. L. 111 Inf. and made a number of acquaintances while doing guard duty with his company in this vicinity last summer.

"ALLEPOPPER" QUILTS PASSENGER SERVICE

Acting Superintendent F. R. Johnson of the Pittsburgh & Susquehanna Railroad company, has announced that on and after October 1st passenger service will be discontinued between Phillipsburg and Fernwood. While the drastic action has probably been decided upon as a war measure and service may later be renewed, it will result in considerable inconvenience to residents along the line as well as the general traveling public. For over a quarter of a century the passenger service has been maintained and while the road was in operation and while the traffic was never such as to make it a profitable feature of operation it will likely be sadly missed now that it is to be stopped.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Take salts to flush kidneys and neutralize irritating acids

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid and is a noted authority. The kidneys filter the acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame causing a burning scalding sensation or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse, again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folk who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is endorsed by kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant effervescent lithia-water drink which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

"IF YOU CAN'T SAVE YOUR COUNTRY BY SERVING, YOU CAN SERVE YOUR COUNTRY BY SAVING." HOW MUCH CAN YOU SAVE?

YANKS CROSS THE HINDENBURG LINE

FORGE AHEAD TAKING LA CATELET WHILE BELGIAN, FRENCH, BRITISH AND JAPS WIN HUGE SUCCESSES

BULGARIAN ARMY CONTINUES TO PLEAD FOR ARMISTICE WHILE BRITISH ARMY CONTINUES TO INVADE COUNTRY

ALLIES ADVANCE EVERYWHERE

By United Press

London, Sept. 28.—The Americans have broken through the defenses beyond the Hindenburg line on a ten mile front between Dannevoix and Belisfontaine, northwest of Verdun, according to battle front dispatches received here today. Between Manville and Montblancville (a front of over ten miles) the Americans are within a mile of the heads of the enemy's three standard gauge railways.

They have taken scores of miles of light railways. Dannevoix is near the bank of the Meuse, 15 miles north and west of Verdun.

By United Press

The Belgian and British forces began operations in Flanders this morning.

The Anglo-American drive on Cambrai was officially reported this morning as progressing favorably.

The Franco-American drive in the Champagne-Argonne region is in full swing with the Americans away beyond the Hindenburg line on a 10 mile front.

The Serbians who have taken Veles are continuing their advance to Uskub. They have taken Koshane, 50 miles north of the farthest point on the Serb-Grecian frontier and outflanking the Bulgarians in the Strouma River valley.

Bulgaria is determined to push negotiations for an armistice to a conclusion, despite bitter opposition by the Germans.

Japanese troops have won new successes in Siberia, effecting a junction with General Rulov.

Information regarding a probable Flanders offensive was contained in an official statement by General Haig who declared that the second army commander, General Plumer—rated as the best British field general—had begun operations in conjunction with the Belgian army.

The attack against Cambrai has brought the British to within 3 miles of the city itself.

Staff dispatches declare the British can take the city when they are ready to occupy it. Its occupancy is delayed only because it is heavily mined by the Germans. German prisoners in this fighting are officially announced as more than 10,000, in addition to 200 guns taken.

The Americans operating with the British have taken Le Catelet lying mid-way between Cambrai and St. Quentin. On the American's right the British and French continue to push against St. Quentin. Americans resuming their drive in the Argonne have advanced beyond the Hindenburg defenses, on a ten mile front between Dannevoix and Belisfontaine, and are within a mile of the main German rail heads in this section. The French attacking on the Americans' left have made rapid progress, and are within 5 miles of the important railway junction of Chalange. More than 16,000 prisoners have been taken so far.

LOCAL BOARD NO. 1 BUSY SENDING OUT QUESTIONNAIRES

Local board No. 1 of Clearfield is well along with its work on the listing and classification of the registrants of 1918 between the ages of 19 and 36. All of the questionnaires between these ages were placed in the mail by the 25th of the month. Any person who should have a questionnaire and who has not received it should at once report that fact to the board so as to save himself from being reported to the military authorities as a delinquent.

There are 1750 men out of the total of 4125 registrants to whom questionnaires have been sent. The board on Friday began its work of classifying. In the first lot of questionnaires examined it was found that a number of registrants had failed to indicate on the face of their questionnaires whether or not they claimed a deferred class. The board calls attention to the fact that the regulations provide "A claim for deferred classification shall be made by a registrant by placing a cross mark (X) on the first page of the questionnaire in the space opposite the division that state the ground of claim and by specifically claiming such deferred classification by his answer to the question at the bottom of such first page."

A General Crowder has stated "Boards are not omniscient" and they cannot be presumed to know the intent and purpose in the mind of the registrant. Where no claim is indicated on the face of a questionnaire Local Board No. 1, Clearfield, will classify the registrant in Class 1. There seems to be an idea abroad that the boards will assume this responsibility of determining where a man will be classified without his making a claim. This is an error. Class 1, Division G is provided for "Registrant by or in respect of whom no deferred classification is claimed." Much time, labor and annoyance can be saved to both the registrant and his dependent, as well as to the already overburdened boards by registrants seeing to it that their questionnaires are completed in this respect.

BULGAR DEBACLE CAUSED BY U. S. WAR ACTIVITIES

By Carl D. Groat

Washington, Sept. 28.—American concentration on the western front is directly responsible for the Bulgarian debacle. This interpretation was drawn today from Chief of Staff March's press conference in which he pointed out that the Germans are no longer able to aid their hard pressed allies such as Bulgaria. The general fall of Turkey and the reestablishment of Roumania were foreseen by March as possibilities if a separate peace is made with Bulgaria. The Danube front would be

The German war office in its Friday statement admitted some successes by the British and Americans in Picardy but declared that renewed attacks by the French and Americans between Argonne forest and the Meuse river had failed.

While the Allies are continuing to invade Bulgaria and force the divided Bulgarian army into a trap the Bulgarian army is continuing its frantic efforts to negotiate an armistice—leading to a separate peace.

The Bulgarian parliament is reported to have officially endorsed Premier Malinoff's offer. Foreign Secretary von Hintz addressing the main committee of the German Reichstag intimated that the Germans would not acquiesce to Bulgaria's request to desert the Central Powers.

ALL CLUB BARS TO CLOSE ON SUNDAYS

U. S. Fuel Administration Asks That Clubs Observe Same Hour As Licensed Liquor Dealers

CLUBS WILL OBEY REQUEST

Federal agents representing the U. S. Fuel Administration were in Clearfield today and while here called on the officials of all the sideboard clubs requesting them to put certain rules into effect as an aid to increasing the man-power of the nation and helping to curtail the large amount of loafing that is prevalent on Mondays. They will visit every liquor dispensing club in the Pennsylvania coal field, comprising ten counties.

The requests made are that absolutely no liquor be dispensed in their rooms on Sundays; that no liquor be dispensed on any day after 10 p. m. In other words, the liquor dispensing clubs are to observe, so far as closing hours are concerned, the very same laws and rulings as laid down by the county courts.

The Federal agents report that every sideboard club in Clearfield very cheerfully and willingly signified their intention of obeying the rules and the agents were very much pleased with their reception here.

This action comes about thru statistics compiled by the U. S. Fuel Administration showing that from five to eight per cent. of the short tonnage of this district is due to idleness on Monday from the result of Sunday drinking or idleness on week days due to drinking at a late hour the night before.

Every licensed hotel and liquor dealer in the county is being advised by the agents that they must literally obey the license law with regard to selling a man when he is visibly intoxicated. The agent is very specific in his explanation that a licensed dealer must not sell to a man who shows by any sign that he has been drinking. The Fuel Administration is going to see that prosecutions are brought where any licensed dealer disobeys this part of the liquor law.

reestablished. Where March always referred to the war situation as "continuously good" he described it today as "continuously better," dwelling largely on Bulgaria. Chief of Staff March pointed out that the debacle was important not only from a diplomatic standpoint but it had a great effect on the grand strategy of war and that it had a striking effect on the western front. Previously he pointed out that the Germans have been able to devote some divisions to other than the western front if necessary. That day has passed, he said. The big concentration of the entire American army plus the French and British forces hold the German in the west.

PRESIDENT MAKES GREAT LIBERTY. LOAN SPEECH

WILSON IN EPOCHAL ADDRESS SAID CENTRAL EMPIRES ARE WITHOUT HONOR AND CANNOT BE TRUSTED

NO BARGAIN OR COMPROMISE PEACE

New York, Sept. 28.—President Wilson tonight, before a record audience, made the most comprehensive war speech of his career.

He explained once more the issues of the war and the sacred things for which America and all civilized world are fighting and he pointed out the purposes which will be accomplished in only one way—by the utter defeat of the Central Powers.

The President struck home, for his every word breathed fire and determination and he declared with earnestness that peace could not rest "upon the word of outlaws."

"We cannot come to terms with them," he said, "for they have made it impossible."

At one point there was a trace of anger in his voice when he told why we entered the war. He said:

"It's challenge drove to the heart of everything we cared and lived for. The voice of a war had become clear and galloped our hearts. Our brothers from many lands as well as our own men murdered, dead under the sea, were calling to us and we responded fiercely, and of course."

The President outlined the great role that America must henceforth take in the world's affairs. He re-explained his ideas of a League of Nations, the organization which in the future will both make secure and maintain the peace of the entire world. The United States, he pointed out would be included in this League, and he showed why the world's affairs and peace demand such a body.

The war, the President said, had resolved itself in a war of peoples and not of statesmen. Its issues, he added, are as these:

Shall the military power of any nation or group of nations be suffered to determine the fortunes of people over whom they have no right to rule except the right of force?

Shall strong nations be free to wrong weak nations and make them subservient to their purpose and interest?

Shall peoples be ruled and dominated even in their own internal affairs by arbitrary and irresponsible force or by their own will and choice?

Shall there be a common standard of right and privilege of all people and nations or shall the strong do as they will and the weak suffer without redress?

Shall the assertion of right be haphazard and by casual alliance or shall there be a common concert to oblige the observance of common rights?

Peace cannot come by bargain or compromise—America has Brest-Litovsk and Bucharest as evidence of the impossibility of a compromise peace, the President declared.

Then in amplification of his utterances of America's interpretation of peace, he laid five particulars which no doubt will be the guiding principles of the peace table discussion. They are:

1. The impartial justice of peace must involve no discrimination between those to whom we wish to be just and those to whom we do not wish to be just. It must be a justice that plays no favorites and knows no standard but the equal rights of the several peoples concerned.

2. No special or separate interest of any single nation or group of nations can be the basis of any part of the settlement which is not consistent with the common interest of all.

3. There can be no league or alliances or special covenants and understandings with the general and common family of the League of Nations.

4. There can be no special selfish economic combinations within the League and no employment of any form of economic boycott or exclusion, except as the power of economic penalty by exclusion from the market of the world may be vested in the League of Nations itself as a means of discipline and control.

5. All international agreements and treaties of every kind must be made known in their entirety to the rest of the world.

Jackie And Yank Alike Will Enjoy The Progress

If your Soldier Of Liberty is in the army or navy he will enjoy getting the news of the old town and vicinity. He read it while he was still with you and think of the joy with which he will hail a bundle of PROGRESSES to read when he has a few minutes
"on his own".

He will get the sort of news you don't write—he will be heartened by the war activity, news from home, for, you know, they worry more about what we are doing than what the boys will do—they know what the boys will do but they wonder whether we will "carry on" through the dark days of uncertainty.

Progress "Over Seas" Service

To meet the growing demand from "over there" for "some copies of the Progress" we have arranged for a special service that will give the boys what they long for—"news from the home town".

The Service. Regularly each week we will mail a week's issue of the PROGRESS wrapped in a special wrapper and using a plainly printed label to your boy "over there". The special wrapping insures safe carriage and the printed label will assure delivery.

Subscription Rate. No advance in subscription rate. The only requirement is that you order the paper for 3 months and that at the regular rate of $1.

Send Him The Progress

The Enemy Is Watching

By NEWTON D. BAKER, Secretary of War

The supreme moments of our struggle with Germany have now come.

We have carried our first armies across three thousand miles of ocean and joined the issue of battle with the military power of a nation that has been for forty years preparing its plans and its weapons for its present attempt to dominate the world. We have had to put forth an immense effort and spend a fabulous sum in order to make, in so short a time, an adequate beginning for our gigantic task.

But it is only our beginning. We must follow it with greater energy and support it with increasing power. Men, munitions, ships and supplies must go to Europe in a larger and larger stream. We must redouble our blows and add constantly to the strength of those blows, if our initial effort is not to be wasted.

This Means That Our Fourth Liberty Loan Must Be Larger Than Its Predecessors, More Enthusiastically Supported and More Quickly Than Ever Subscribed

The enemy is watching anxiously for the first sign that we are faltering.

Our Government Loans should go "over the top" as eagerly as our soldiers do, in order to carry with them the terror of furious attack. Our dollars must rain upon the enemy as overwhelmingly as our hail of bullets or our storm of shells.

We are fighting for the liberty of the world, for the triumph of our ideals of democracy and self-government over the last great advocate of force upholding injustice. We are buying with our Liberty Loans the security and joy of our people for generations to come. No price could be too high to pay for such a victory—no cost too great for such a purchase.
